

OUR 2021 PROJECTS

COUNTRY	DESCRIPTION	ORGANIZATIONS
Bangladesh	Maternal, neonatal and infant care in the remote river islands of Gaibandha district	Friendship
Benin, Senegal	echOpen, an ultrasound pregnancy monitoring device to improve maternal-fetal health in developing countries - Qualification study of maternal health uses	Association echOpen/Institut Pasteur de Dakar/ European EIT Health Consortium (APHP, Altran, Fondation Pierre Fabre, Paris Sorbonne, ESIEA, ESPCI, ENS, IMEC, ULB, EPFL, Mines ParisTech, Institut Pasteur, Greman)
Burkina Faso, Niger, Madagascar	Educating young women and pregnant women about malnutrition using the Nutricartes tool and the 1000 Days game	L'APPEL
West Africa	Facilitating the digital health community of practice	Amref
Burkina Faso, India, Rwanda, Zambia, Eswatini, Sierra Leone, Uganda, Indonesia and Brazil	Develop tools to implement the WHO 2016 Antenatal Care Model with the integration of postnatal tools	WHO (World Health Organization)
India	Improving the care of pregnant women and newborns in primary care centers, as well as outreach with community health workers	EPIC (SNEHA)
Senegal	Immersive approach: launching a program to connect and accelerate local impact in rural and peri-urban areas in Saint-Louis, led locally by the Rawal ak Diam platform team	FSE / Artemedis / Local authorities / Saint-Louis University
	Roll out of three multi-disease awareness and screening caravans for women in the district of Saint-Louis, with the aim of making them permanent	Santé En Entreprise
	Enhancing the coverage and quality of care for mothers, newborns and children through the provision of an integrated package of services in the Saint-Louis region	UNICEF
	Apply the Needs-led Innovation methodology to maternal and neonatal health and access to care in hospital emergencies in the context of the Saint-Louis regional hospital and other public hospitals	European EIT Health Consortium (Sorbonne University, IUIS / Saint-Louis regional hospital / Université Gaston Berger de Saint-Louis, AP-HP)
	Stakeholder capacity development program to improve health promotion in West Africa	UNESCO Chair in Health and Education
Tanzania	Impact evaluation of the program to strengthen the capacity of midwives to manage emergency situations	CAM-TAMA
Madagascar	Contribution to the improvement of public health, maternal and neonatal health in the Vakinankaratra region	EAST
Multi-country	ENERGHY Summer Campus: helping to develop future generations of talent at the intersection of global health, innovation, and social entrepreneurship. Support for 10 scholarships for students from low- and moderate-income countries	European EIT Health Consortium (Barcelona University/ Institute for Global health Barcelona / Hospital Sant Joan de Déu / NUI Galway)